Waiting & Anticipation

These are two words that we have issues with especially if you are an impatient person like I am sometimes! We live in a "microwave world" of ... We want it now. We want it quick and easy! How often in your life do you think, "I can't wait for...?"

The excitement, the anticipation, the waiting for something we didn't think would ever get here or we would receive!

Aren't you grateful that we don't have a Savior like that when we think about His return? "But you must not forget this one thing, dear friends. A day is like a thousand years to the Lord and a thousand years is like a day. The LORD isn't being slow about his promise, as some people think. No, He is being patient for your sake. He does not want any-one to be destroyed, but wants everyone to repent. But the day of the Lord will come as unexpectedly as a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed." (2 Peter 3:8-16) We should be "ready" for His return – not one He is waiting on to change before it is eternally too late!

When we receive something we have been anticipating – new job, new vehicle, engagement ring, promotion, answered prayers from God on good news of test results or surgery – how do we respond? We want to tell others and share our excitement, blessings, and joy with family and friends! Can you imagine how the world would be if we shared that same excitement and anticipation with others about our relationship with the Lord and His return someday soon?

God is patiently waiting. Are we telling others about Him daily through our actions and words?

Deepest Sympathy to Jeff and Donna Davis and their entire family in the passing of Jeff's mother, Bette Davis.

Thank you so much for helping me. I was in a very desperate place when you stepped in and gave me everything I needed. Many of you packed, moved, and unpacked me. You gave me clothes, food, and the love of Christ. The number of people who helped is more than I can name. I am thankful to be a part of this loving congregation. Love in Christ,
